* Note: For bank transactions, kindly bring your payment slip during exam day.

** For non-FEU graduate MBA applicants:

- Prior online application, kindly secure your endorsement form at the Admissions and Financial Assistance (AFA) Office.
- Proceed to the concerned institute for your initial evaluation. Bring a photocopy of your Transcript of Records with at least 2.0 GWA and a photocopy of your diploma. Also provide a photocopy of professional license if applicable.
- Return the endorsement form to the AFA office and proceed with the online registration steps.
- After passing the Graduate Level Test (GLT), submit requirements to the institute or admissions office and retrieve your initial evaluation documents from the AFA.
- Proceed to your institute for final evaluation and return to AFA for enrollment date and procedure.

SCHOLARSHIPS

FEU offers a variety of scholarships and grants for qualified students who might be dealing with financial difficulties.

MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

- Entrance scholarship
- Graduate studies entrance scholarship (for MBA)

NEEDS-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

- Long-term Educational Assistance Program (LEAP)
- Nicanor Reyes Science Scholarship Program (NRSSP)
- Grants for special groups
- Presidential Decree (PD) No. 577

FEU TUITION DISCOUNT (FTD)

For students with less than P360,000.00 combined annual family income with at least C (2.50) QPA and no failed or dropped courses in the preceding semester. Grantee must enroll a minimum load of 15 units and provide proof of income.

GRADUATE STUDIES TUITION DISCOUNT

Open for FEU alumni, full-time professionals, government employees, school guidance counselors, nurses, and teachers. Tuition discounts range from 25 percent (alumni) and 50 percent to 75 percent (professionals).

SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP GRANTS

For qualified athletes, members of the cheerleading squad and members of the President's Committee on Culture (PCC) groups. Benefits for athletes and cheerleading squad members include full tuition and assessed miscellaneous fees discount, while qualified members of the PCC are granted either full or partial tuition discount.

EXTERNALLY FUNDED GRANTS

Apart from university-funded scholarships, our industry partners also offer grants for qualified students. However, FEU implements a one-student, one-scholarship policy. If a student qualifies for both university-funded and externally funded grants, the student must choose which grant to avail through a waiver documenting their decision. Additionally, grants are revoked upon cancellation of enrolment since the grant's purpose has not been met.

For more information about externally funded grants and other financial assistance programs, you may contact the Admissions and Financial Assistance office.
