

The Financial Management track is an integrated program of courses and activities designed to expose the students to institutions and practices of the financial world. The program grounds the students in the principles of finance theories and its applications to industry practice, technical and fundamental analytical skills encompassing international certification and accreditation.

Moreover, it offers courses for which there is both a traditional undergraduate and sections leading globally recognize certifications such as Certified Financial Market Professional (CFMP), Accredited Financial Analysts (AFA), Associate Financial Planner (AFP), Chartered Institute for Security and Investment UK (CISI) among others.

Professional Major Courses

- FIN1101 – Financial Analysis and Reporting
- FIN1102 – Banking and Financial Institutions
- FIN1103 – Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management
- FIN1104 – Monetary Policy and Central Banking
- FIN1105 – Financial Planning and Consulting
- FIN1106 – Credit, Collection and Compliance
- FIN1107 – Capital Markets
- FIN1108 – Special Topics in Finance (Digital Finance)

Elective Courses

- FIN1201 – Behavioral Finance
- FIN1202 – Financial Derivatives
- FIN1203 – Financial Programming And Database Management
- FIN1204 – Islamic Banking
- FIN1205 – Personal Finance And Wealth Management
- FIN1206 – Risk and Insurance
- FIN1207 – Seminars in Finance
- FIN1208 – Spreadsheet Financial Modelling

FIN1209 – Technical Analysis For Investments

FIN1210 – Valuation and Mergers and Acquisitions

FIN1211 – Value Investing In Asia