

FEU PUBLICATIONS

Room 113, Ground Floor, Arts Building,
Far Eastern University
Nicanor Reyes Street, Sampaloc, Manila
1015, Philippines

Tel. Nos: (02) 7777 338 / (02) 849 4000
local 311

Email: publications@feu.edu.ph

@FEUpublications

@feu_publications

Ground Floor, Science Building,
Far Eastern University
Nicanor Reyes Street, Sampaloc,
1015, Philippines

Tel Nos.: (02) 7777 338 / (02) 849
local 304 / 305

Email: tamsbookstore@feu.edu

@Tamsbookstore

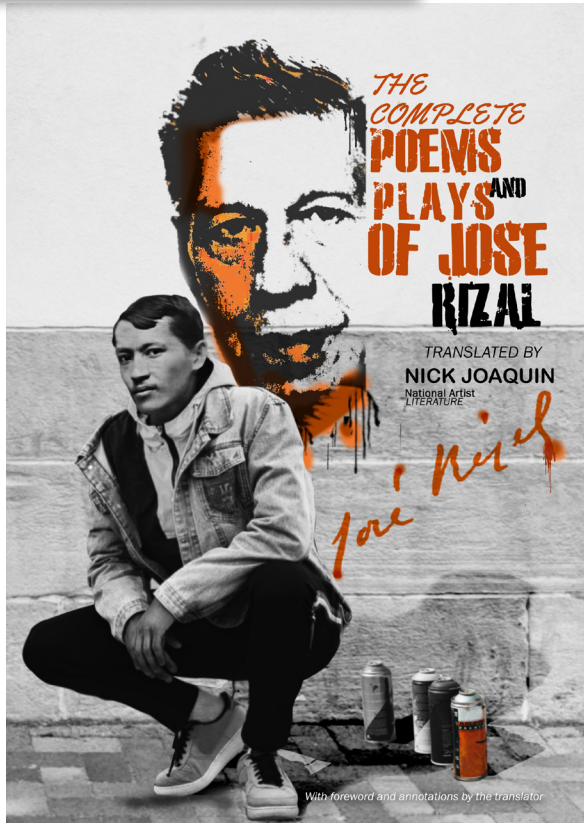

@Tamsbookstore

CATALOG 2024

NEW LOOK

The Complete Poems and Plays of Jose Rizal

2023

Translated by Nick Joaquin

ISBN: 978-971-678-071-0 (HB)

978-971-678-070-3 (SB)

The Complete Poems and Plays of Jose Rizal features the works of two prominent figures--our national hero, Jose Rizal, and our foremost writer Nick Joaquin, in the roles of poet and translator respectively. The book masterfully blends Joaquin's writing style in English and Rizal's use of Spanish.

NEW

Piña Futures: Weaving Memories and Innovations

2023

Randy M. Madrid PhD.

ISBN: 978-971-678-069-7 (SB)

Piña Futures: Weaving Memories and Innovations bridge piña's rich cultural traditions with contemporary innovations that sustain its existence as the "Queen of Philippine Fabrics." It offers new perspectives on the development of an island textile into a garment of honor and identity, a treasure of the world, and a fabric of the future.

A Guide to Gingers of Sorsogon

2021

R.V.A Docot

ISBN: 978-971-678-065-9 (SB)

This is the first guide that showcases the family Zingiberaceae in the Philippines, covering topics such as basic structure of the ginger plant, economically important Philippine gingers, taxonomic history of the family in the country, and the reason why Sorsogon was chosen, all of which are presented in the introductory part of the book. Gintong Aklat Awards 2022 Winner: Science and Technology. 40th National Book Award Finalist : Science.

Braving the Odds

2021

Alfredo Roces

ISBN: 978-971-678-067-3 (SB)

Roces' scholarly synthesis of Far Eastern University from its beginnings to the present is a wonderful way of celebrating its 93rd year. Roces' observations from the time he was a student, a teacher, a faculty member, to the time he was a member of the administration provided him the expertise incomparable to that of other historians of FEU.

Ambahan: A Love Story Poems

2021

Quintin Jose V. Pastrana

Translated by: Danton Remoto

ISBN: 978-971-678-064-2 (SB)

Ambahan, a Love Story is a collection of 50 ambahan poems-- the traditional form of poetry of a Mindoro-based indigenous group, Hanunuo Mangyan. Each poem follows the metric structure of seven syllables per poetic line, with imagery drawn from immediate surroundings, elevating experience in a narrative line of remembrances, stories, and lessons that the Hanunuo Mangyan adopted as their communal way of expression and connection.

Volleyball Diaries

2021

Ed Garcia

ISBN: 978-971-678-066-6 (SB)

Volleyball Diaries reflect on the Lady Tams' experience in four different years: the team's runner-up finish in Season 80 led by Bernadeth Pons; the final four finish in Season 81, and the pandemic-hit Seasons 82 and 83.

Dugout Diaries

2020

Ed Garcia

The Dugout Diaries provides a reflective attempt to share stories not only with those who love the game of basketball but also with those who see another side to sports: the development of character.

Walk Manila

2019

Lorelei D.C. de Viana

ISBN: 978-971-678-063-5 (SB)

Walk Manila identifies 100 historic sites and structures including those deemed as heritage-at-risk in the different districts. With appended maps, the guidebook facilitates suggested walking tours through Manila's urban fabric, local color and texture, cultural nuances and quirk. 39th National Book Award Winner: Best Book on Humor, Sports, and Lifestyle.

Mindanao Harvest 4

2019

Edited by Jaime An Lim,
Christine Godinez Ortega, and
Ricardo de Ungria

ISBN: 978-971-678-062-8 (SB)

Mindanao Harvest 4 gathers the poetry, fiction, essays, and drama of 60 established but mostly young emerging writers addressing Mindanao themes like war and conflict, cultural beliefs and practices, Muslim-Christian interrelations, folk traditions, ecological degradation, and ethnic identity issues. 39th National Book Award Winner: Best Anthology in English.

FEU Feast: Philippine Homegrown Recipes

2018

Forewords by Secretary Bernadette Romulo-Puyat and Nina Daza-Puyat

ISBN: 978-971-678-059-8 (HB)

978-971-678-059-8 (SB)

As in a celebration of any feast, this cookbook is borne out of passion and generosity of all contributors to share with the FEU community and other food lovers a gift or two on the occasion of the university's foundation year.

Silanganan: The FEU Art Collection

2017

Cid Reyes

ISBN: 978-971-678-060-4 (HB)
978-971-678-061-1 (SB)

Silanganan presents the Far Eastern University story as an aesthetic experience whereby FEU's aspirations of Fortitude, Excellence, and Uprightness are poised as a collective response to the anesthetizing rituals of the every day.

Four Waves of Transition

2015

Edited by Jaime An Lim

LRM

978-971-678-053-6 (HB)

978-971-678-054-3 (SB)

LBE

978-971-678-050-5 (HB)

978-971-678-049-9 (SB)

EDJ

978-971-678-048-2 (HB)

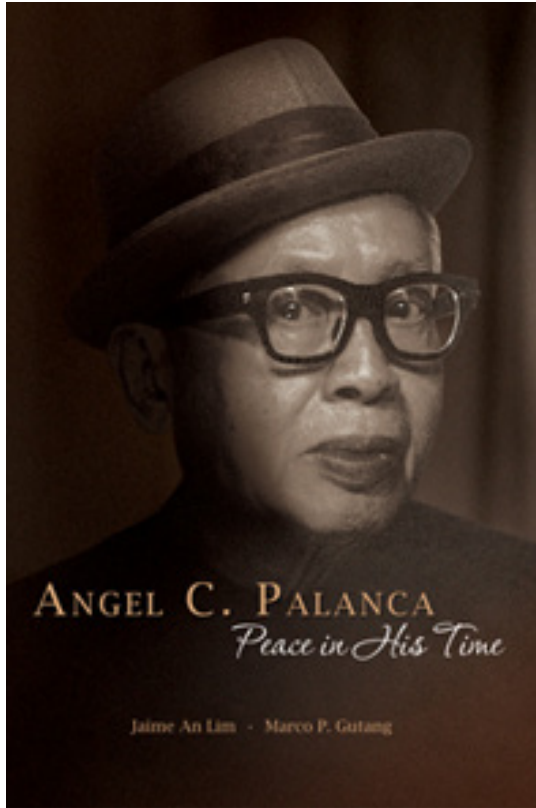

978-971-678-047-5 (SB)

FCS

978-971-678-051-2 (HB)

978-971-678-052-9 (SB)

The “Four Waves of Transition” like the personalities in these four volumes, are like waves of change and growth which characterize the leadership of the past FEU Presidents: Chair Emeritus, Dr. Lourdes R. Montinola, Dr. Felixberto Sta. Maria, Dr. Edilberto De Jesus, and Dr. Lydia Echauz.

Angel C. Palanca: Peace in His Time

2013

Edited by Jaime An Lim and
Marco T. Gutang

ISBN: 978-971-678-040-6 (HB)
978-971-678-038-3 (SB)

Get to know the gentleman who was the firm but amiable chair of Far Eastern University's Board of Trustees from 1956 to 1976 through the intimate recollection of FEU officials, faculty members, his children, relatives, and friends. Contains very soothing and intimate essays to read any time of the day.

WINNING PEACE: ACP3 Essays 2008-2012

2013

Edited by Jaime An Lim

ISBN: 978-971-678-039-0 (SB)

This book presents prize-winning essays in the annual competition conducted by the Angel C. Palanca Program Foundation in honor of the gentleman whose peace-making ways kept Far Eastern University stable from 1956 to 1976 during which he was chair of the University's Board of Trustees. It presents essays by the young peace visionaries of FEU from 2008 to 2012.

A Renaissance Woman

2010

Edited by Dr. Lydia B. Echaúz and Sylvia R. Montilla

ISBN: 978-971-678-036-9 (SB)

A Renaissance Woman is a collection of essays in honor of Far Eastern University's chair emeritus, Dr. Lourdes Reyes-Montinola. The book offers an endearing glimpse into the life, interests, and involvements of the woman behind FEU's stability and dynamism for more than 20 years now.

The Other Other

2010

Isagani R. Cruz

ISBN: 978-971-678-033-8 (SB)

The Other Other consists of Cruz's critical essays in English, many of which were originally published outside the Philippines. His critical essays in Filipino are collected in Bukod na Bukod, proclaimed by the University of the Philippines as one of the best 100 books published by its university press.

The Art of Teaching

2008

Edited by Jaime An Lim,
Noel B. Bejo, and
Danny T. Vibas

ISBN: 978-971-678-031-4 (SB)

Thirty-five faculty members (some of whom are also administrators) of Far Eastern University share their best teaching practices in the classroom that have produced topnotchers in licensure exams over the years, as well as encouraging number of passers in board exams yearly.

A Renaissance Woman

2010

Rustica C. Carpio

ISBN: 978-971-678-029-1

The multi-award winning Rustica Carpio, whose artistic prowess spans several disciplines, colorfully depicts, in this autobiography a life that has taken her through three wars, countless stages and as many movie sets around the globe while she tirelessly contributes to the betterment of aspiring generations through her work in education.

Masks and Mirrors

2008

Azucena Grajo Uranza

ISBN: 978-971-678-026-0 (SB)

The award-winning short story writer-novelist is also very much a prize-winning playwright – and this book encases eight of her plays written from the 1950s to 1980s. It also contains a moving play about Jose Rival's last hours at Fort Santiago as told by four characters that knew the National Hero intimately.

Contemplating Women: In the Philosophy of Edith Stein

2007

Maybelle Marie O. Padua

ISBN: 978-971-678-025-3 (SB)

This book is an excellent index on the historical development of the definition and identity of woman. Stein is significant for her genuine discovery of womanhood, among others; and Prof. Padua's work on Stein is a major contribution to the understanding of the philosophical emancipation of the feminine from the traditional patriarchal social biases.

Sports @ FEU

2007

Manolo R. Iñigo,
Mark Molina, and
Gloria R. Aligada

ISBN: 978-971-678-024-6 (HB)

One of the country's leading sports editors (Iñigo) teams up with Far Eastern University's athletic director (Molina) and Social Sciences professor (Aligada) to showcase the University's noteworthy achievements in sports from the 1930s to the present, thus also highlighting the Filipino's excellence in athletics over the years.

Fort, A Novel

2006

Buenaventura S. Medina, Jr.

ISBN: 978-971-678-023-9 (SB)

Holding fast to the sentimentalities that shape a Filipino's family ethos, this is a tale that follows one Manileño as he and his loved ones struggle and adapt with a nation from the war years through the Marcos Era. This award winning novel (1993 Palanca Grand Prize) originally penned in Tagalog (entitled Moog) is translated here into English by the author.

Tandoz and Other Stories

2005

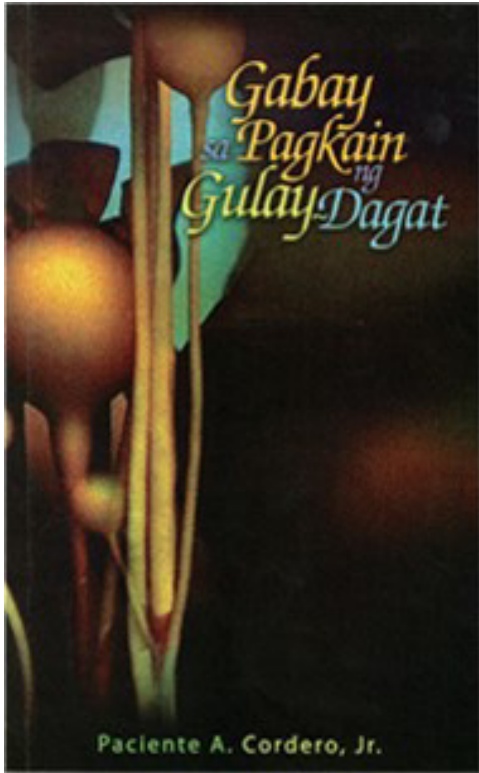

Delfin Fresnosa

Edited by Teresita E. Erestain

ISBN: 971-678-011-7 (SB)

A collection of short stories penned during the decades surrounding the war, Delfin Fresnosa captures life of Manila's down trodden and dispossessed. This volume is perfect for collectors of rare Filipiniana, Erestain scoured archives across the capital to resuscitate stories that otherwise might be committed to the Philippine's forgotten literary history.

Gabay Sa Pagkain Ng Gulay-Dagat

2005

Paciente Cordero, Jr.

ISBN: 971-678-010-9 (SB)

One of the country's foremost and internationally-known marine biologists offers a very readable guide on the country's edible seaweeds. Gabay Sa Pagkain ng Gulay-Dagat is both practical and scholarly, thus making it a perfect all-year round gift to friends and loved-ones who truly care for their health and that of their family.

A Harvest of Green and Gold

2004

Edited by Elmer A. Ordoñez

ISBN: 971-678-007-9 (SB)

This anthology comprises of short stories from renowned giants of the Philippine literature world like National Artists for Literature Nick Joachin and F. Sionil Jose to celebrated literary awardees, poets, fiction writers, essayists and others all of whom share the right to call Far Eastern University Alma Mater.

Transformations: A Region In The Making 2004

Vicente C. Reyes, Jr.,
Tamara Renee Shie and Marcelino N. Lizaso, Jr.

ISBN: 971-678-005-2 (SB)

This collection of papers researched and written by graduate scholars from the Southeast Asian Studies Programme (SEASP) of the National University of Singapore investigates issues confronting ASEAN today. The volume explores the rising Chinese hegemony and the ASEAN Free Trade Area (AFTA) among several other issues spanning developmental economics, ethnic animosity and the American War on Terror.